Oppressive Heat Causes Defeat of Walter J. Travis by "Chick" Evans.

New York, September 4 .- "Chick" Evans and John G. It was a day of dark skies and oppressive heat, and the golfers seemed to feel the depressing conditions, for the golf players was, in most cases as dull as the weather. The results of the four matches were as follows:

Evans eliminated Waltes J. Travis, the "Grand Old Man of Golf," by 5 up and 4 to play; Anderson advanced to the semifinal by defeating Tom Sherman by 4 up and 3 to play; Jerome Travers, the defending champion, beat Archie Reid by 3 up and 2 to play, and Herreshoff beat P. W. Whittemore, of Boston, by 3 up and 1 to play. Of the survivors, Evans is from Chicago, Anderson from Boston and the other two from the Metropolitan district.

The Evans-Travis match attracted the biggest gallery of the week. In the morning Evans and Travis had the tightest kind of a match, even if the golf was not of the best in quality. They halved the first hole. The second was won by Evans, who laid his tee shot four feet from the pin and then followed five holes in succession, each of which was halved in 5. On the eighth green Travis holed a twenty-five-foot put for a 3 and squared the five-foot put for a 3 and squared the match, and for the remainder of the round it was nip and tuck, Evans finally finishing 1 up at midday. The medal scores for the round were 80 for Evans and $1 for Travis, showing that the pace was not a fast one. In the afternoon the Chicago boy gradually pulled away from the "Old Man," who seemed to be feeling the heat and could not hold the pace. Evans was 3 up at the turn, and by winning the eleventh and fourteenth settled the match.

The other two matches resulted much as had been expected. At the end of the first round Herreshoff was 1 up on Whittemore. The Boston man soon squared the match when they started out for the second round, and before they had gone far took the lead himself. Herreshoff evened it once more by sinking a thirty-five-footer on the minth green, and won the next two. On by sinking a thirty-five-footer on the ninth green, and won the next two. On the twelfth Whittemore had a splendid chance to win the hole, but he took four puts and lost it. Thereafter it was easy for Herreshoff. The Anderson-Sherman match was pretty much Anderson's all of the way, though both he and Sherman holed some startling puts.
